WORLD FAMOUS RACING STABLES WILL BE HERE FOR STATE FAIR

Durfee, DeRyder, McKenzie and Other Famous Horsemen Coming—Spriggman to Try for New Record on Local Track

With the return of Secretary Thomas D. Shoupsness, of the Arizona state fair from his trip around the state looking after the interest of the Arizona fair comes the good news also that Arizona this year bids fair to have the finest harness events for the race program that have ever graced the wonderful mile track at the fair grounds over on the Glendale turnpike. Some of the greatest stables in the country will be represented here during the six great days of racing. This is already secured. The promise of many of these men has been given that they will be on hand to contest for their part of the $15,000 that has been hung up for the weeks events in the harness classes. This is no sinecure for the horsemen even after the great purses of the San Francisco exposition.

Referring to the big expo brings to mind the fact that a visit from Spriggman, driven by the famous C. R. DeRyder, who has handled Dunne's great horse this year, will be among the attractions at the Arizona fair track. Spriggman this year captured the great $25,000 Panama-Pacific course. His opportunity at Phoenix, however, is to establish his first time on a mile track here fair week, as many another fine animal has done in the past.

DeRyder, who won a silver cup last year, is now promised to be on hand with his incomparable string of horses, and that means practically that the Dunne stable will be here also. The Durfee brothers, who have had many records to their credit on the Phoenix track, will be on hand with theirs while it is not unlikely that R. J. McKenzie of Pleasanton, Cal., will attend also with his horses.

All these men are friends of the Arizona track and the state fair and they have in the past furnished some of the finest racing in the world right here. That they will do so again seems to be almost a safe bet at this time, barring accidents of course.

Leaders Played Way Ahead Of Opposition In Majors

Philadelphia and Boston Each Strengthen Leads During Past Ten Days—Alexander Probably on the Resting List

PREPARATIONS FOR THE WORLD SERIES

Expected to Start Very Shortly. When Pennants Are Cinched—Some Authorities Favor Red Sox to Beat Phillies

Philadelphia is building a strong season-end platform, on which to stand as champions of the National league, in the internecine strife that will agitate baseball early next month. Yesterday's double victory did not clinch any pennants, but it showed that the Phillies are still putting up a highly victorious brand of baseball. No apparent weakening has shown itself, in spite of the strain of closing up the season in first place.

It will be noticed that Alexander, the star pitcher of all the leagues, has not been exerting himself much of late. Since he won his twenty-ninth victory a few days ago, he has not thrown a glove with serious intentions toward any opposing team. This is as it should be. Moran is saving his croak for longer things. Alexander is the man of whom Moran said at the start of the season, "Well, he's good for twenty-five games out our side. Now, if I can just get my other pitchers working good, we'll show 'em." Alexander may be called on to win two out of the four world series games—or at least just a suspenseful trying.

Philadelphia has made by one victory, the best showing of any National league team since a week ago Monday. In the ten days, the Phillies won seven and lost three games. Boston was nearest to whom Moran said at the start of the season, "Well, he's good for twenty-five games out our side. Now, if I can just get my other pitchers working good, we'll show 'em." Alexander may be called on to win two out of the four world series games—or at least just a suspenseful trying.

With the pitchers going strong, and the hits coming in regularly, Boston has dominated the American league, even throwing the desperately climbing Tigers in the shade for the past ten days. The Red Sox at this time look like ready money for a world series trial. In the past ten days, they have endured but two defeats, one of them being administered by the Tigers. In the "junior world's series" at Boston on the opening day, last Thursday, now, the Red Sox face a comparatively easy finish, a half game separate them.

MANY TEAMS DESIRE GAMES WITH KITES

The high school is now running in fine shape and with the large number of boys out for foot ball, prospects are good that P. H. S. will have some team. The teams now wanting games with the Coyotes are, Tempe Normal, Flagstaff Normal, Tucson high, Prescott high, Douglas high, Pasadena high and the Indian school. The Alumni and Tempe and Glendale will be ready in about two weeks as they are still in need of some good hard practice.

It is not certain yet whether there will be a game for the Coyotes Saturday, as Glendale is not ready and unless Manager Taylor gets a game with some other team, he will have to call the game off for the coming Saturday.

The first class game comes off Friday afternoon at 4 p. m. at Riverside between the Freshmen and Sophomores. Basil Wilky was elected class captain at the Junior foot ball team meeting held in the dressing rooms last night.

CYCLIST CHAMP FOR 14 YEARS TO RETIRE

Frank L. Kramer will retire from active competition in cycling races at the close of this season. He has held the professional cycling title for fourteen years, and he now admits that he has been overtaken by Father Time.

Kramer was born in Evansville, Ind., Nov. 21, 1889. At the age of 15 he developed tubercular trouble, and to get the air his father bought him a wheel. Within two years he was a contender for the amateur championship. He succeeded in winning it in 1899, holding the title for two years.

In 1906 Kramer made his debut as a professional and finished second to Major Taylor for the American professional championship. He won the title in the following year, and has since held it.

In 1912 he entered in his world's championship race and won. That was the only time he competed in a world's title race, although during the twelve or fourteen years he held the championship against all comers and was considered the best man a wheel.

EXTRA WORK KEEPS U. S. COURT A-GOING

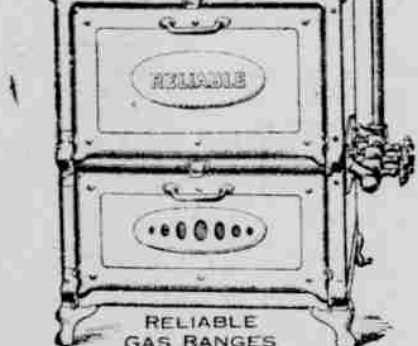

Day's Session Here and There Interrupts Calm Between Prescott and Phoenix Regular Sittings.

Only U. S. Attorney Tom Flynn, Gerald Jones and the assistant clerks and deputy marshals remained on the ground yesterday, following the brief session of federal court, Judge Sawtelle and Clerk Lewis are back in Tucson, where an extra session of court will be held, before the affairs begin to move here early next month, for the regular term.

Following the close of an unusually long term in Prescott, the court did a bit of naturalization business here, and then put off everything until October 1, when a day will be spent in hearing motions in civil matters to come up during the October term. Grand and trial juries have been drawn, and will report on October 4 and 5, respectively.

No specially exciting cases are on the criminal docket for the next term.

Yessir, yessiree!

"7" stands for 7th point—the unknown point of Sterling Gum's superiority. Latest thing in Mystery. But—not unfindable. For every time you lift a stick of Sterling Gum, it goes—

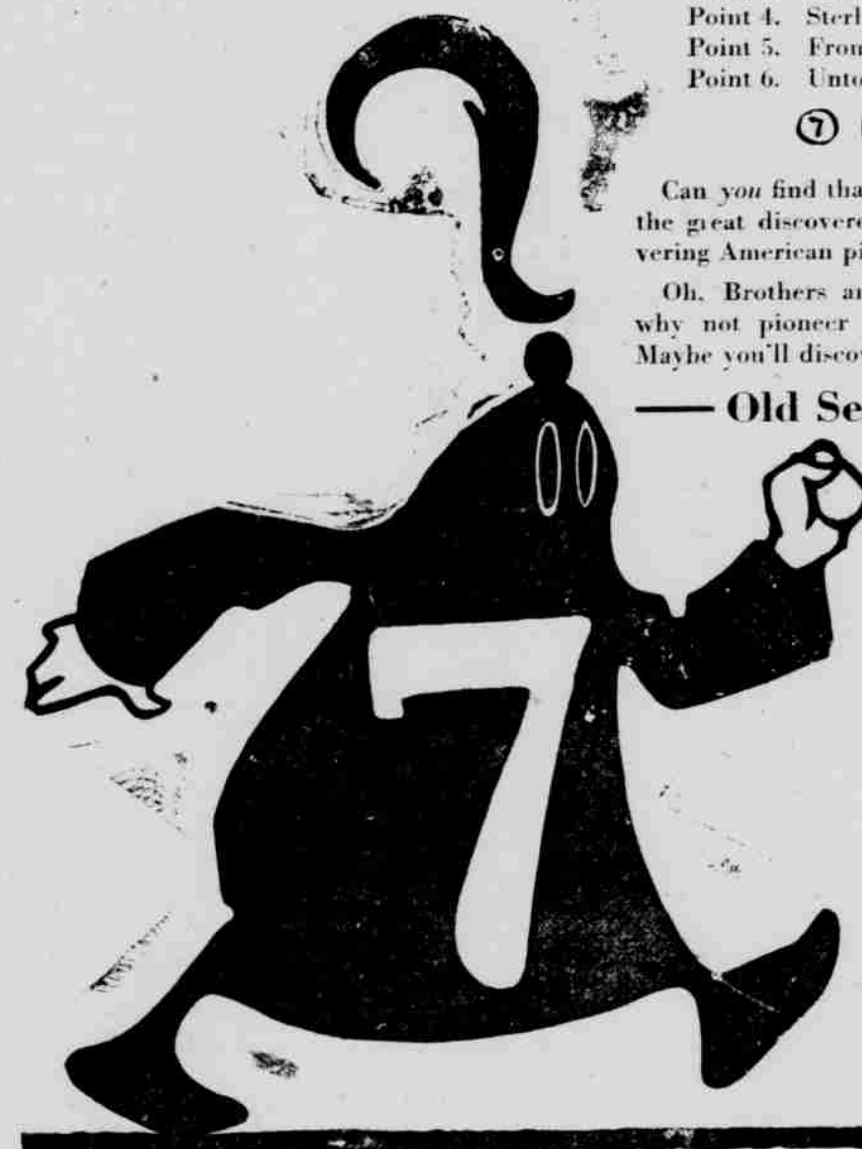

- Point 1. Crowded with flavor.
- Point 2. Velvety body—NO GRIT.
- Point 3. Crumble-proof.
- Point 4. Sterling purity.
- Point 5. From a daylight factory.
- Point 6. Untouched by hands.

⑦ What?

Can you find that 7th point? Think of all the great discoverers—remember the persevering American pioneers of early days.

Oh, Brothers and Sisters and little ones, why not pioneer yourselves? Who knows? Maybe you'll discover that 7th point.
